Dear Friends,

AMMAN - In light of the recent developments in Gaza, we want to emphasize that Jordan continues to be a safe and welcoming destination for tourists from around the world.

Jordan takes pride in its reputation as a secure and hospitable country.

Our commitment to ensuring the safety and well-being of all visitors remains unwavering.

Travelers can have peace of mind when exploring our rich cultural heritage, breathtaking landscapes and vibrant cities.

We want to reassure everyone that Jordan's borders are open to tourists, and we are eager to share our extraordinary experiences with the world.

Our tourism industry remains resilient and ready to provide unforgettable journeys for those seeking adventure, history and unparalleled hospitality.

We understand that tensions around the world can raise concerns, but we believe in the power of travel to foster understanding and build bridges between nations.

We invite travelers to explore the wonders of Jordan, to connect with our warm and friendly people, and to create lasting memories in a nation where the spirit of hospitality has been a tradition for centuries.

As always, the Jordan Tourism Board is here to assist and support tourists in making the most of their visit.

We look forward to welcoming you to Jordan and ensuring your experience is both enriching and safe.
