Dubai

Where old meets new

Comprising of seven emirates – Dubai, Abu Dhabi, Fujairah, Ras Al Khaimah, Ajman, Umm Al Quwain and Sharjah, the UAE is one of the world's fastest growing tourist destinations, a meeting place for diverse cultures with all the right ingredients for an unforgettable holiday experience.

With some of the finest hotels in the world, miles of golden sandy beaches and warm seas, state-of-the-art shopping malls, exotic souks, exquisite dining options, stunning desert and mountain landscapes, the UAE is a truly unique destination to explore.

The centre of our world

Dubai has been described in many ways - the gateway to the Middle East, the City of Merchants and the City of Gold - to name a few.

Dubai is a city of contrasts, a land where tradition meets diversity, historic and modern, from east to west, that blend seamlessly to create a fascinating destination. It is home to some of the world's finest hotels and culinary flare. An abundance of attractions, festivals and activities by day, and traditional celebrations to trendy discotheques by night are enough to keep any visitor with plenty to experience.

The numerous shopping malls feature international brands at competitive prices attracting the most enthusiastic shopper at heart. From lazing on pristine beaches to the thrill of hunting down bargains in the souks. Golf enthusiasts can tee-off on one of our championship courses while adventure seekers can try their hand at dune driving, sand boarding, scuba diving, fishing or indoor skiing. Whether you stay a few hours or a few days, experience the vibrancy of the world's fastest growing commercial and tourist centre, home to the world's tallest tower - Burj Khalifa, the world's largest mall - The Dubai Mall, the marvellous Palm Islands, the iconic Palm Jumeirah, all in an architects playground which continues to raise the bar with ground-breaking developments - Dubai is truly the metropolis of tomorrow.

General Information

Dress code

The United Arab Emirates is an Islamic country and clothing should be modest. In the hot and humid summer months light cotton garments are ideal. During the winter months, when the seasonal average is a pleasant 24°C, light sweaters are recommended. Beachwear is acceptable at beach clubs, hotels and public beaches. During the day, the dress code is fairly casual, although more exclusive restaurants and clubs may expect guests to dress more formally during the evening.

Language

Arabic is the national language of the United Arab Emirates but English is widely spoken and understood. The majority of information signs are in both languages.

Currency and exchange

The monetary unit of the United Arab Emirates is the Dirham (AED), divided into 100 fils. Exchange rate: US$1 = AED 3.67.

Food and drinks

Most hotels offer local specialities, as well as an eclectic mix of cuisine. Even though the UAE is a Muslim country, alcohol is served at many licensed hotel restaurants, bars and nightclubs. Restaurants outside hotels do not serve alcohol.

Tap water is safe to use, although bottled water is recommended for personal consumption.

Public holidays - fixed

National Day (2nd December) and New Year's Day (1st January).

The Holy Month of Ramadan

The Holy Month of Ramadan is expected to begin the first week of July, 2014 and continue for a maximum of 30 days.

The Holy Month of Ramadan is when Muslims fast from sunrise to sunset. Eating, drinking and smoking in public areas during daylight hours is strictly prohibited with exceptions permitted only for small children and expecting mothers. No food or beverages will be served in any open restaurants during daylight hours.

All Dubai Stopovers featured hotels make concessions for their guests with at least one restaurant open during the day for resident guests. Alcohol will however not be served in restaurants during this time but is served in restaurants and bars only after sunset for non-Muslims. In each hotel, only one bar is permitted to serve alcohol to guests from 2000 hours to 0200 hours. Live entertainment, loud music and dancing are also prohibited during this period.

Many hotels celebrate 'breaking the fast' after sunset and offer Iftar, a great experience while visiting Dubai during Ramadan.

Dubai City Tour*

A fascinating historical excursion; our route takes us from Burj Al Arab, Dubai's landmark hotel to Majlis Al Ghorfat, a magnificent structure constructed in 1955 and recently restored. The Majlis was originally the summer residence of the late Sheikh Rashid bin Saeed Al-Maktoum.

Driving past modern palaces, we stop at the Jumeirah Mosque for a photo opportunity. Our route then takes us to Al Fahidi Cultural district to admire the old-wind-towered houses which were built by wealthy merchants, passing the magnificent Zabeel Palace on the way. Further on, we visit the Al Fahidi Fort, a 200-year-old structure that houses the Dubai Museum and records the city's past as an important pearl diving and trading centre.

We continue our journey on a traditional abra, across the Creek, offering sights of a modern metropolis, with splendid architecture on its banks, dwarfing the bustling alleys of the gold and spice souks.

*Lunch not included in the tour price.

Dune Dinner Safari

The mysterious desert beckons you for a magical evening out - an adventure you'll never forget. Leaving behind the bustle of the city in the afternoon, our safari guides will transport you, by four-wheel drive vehicles, for a thrilling journey over rolling dunes through the Dubai Desert Conservation Reserve, deep into the heart of the desert.

From the crest of a high dune, watch the setting sun cast its orange glow over the vast expanse of rippling sand all round you. Like a shimmering mirage in the distance you will see the flickering lights of your camp where a traditional Arabian welcome awaits you.

The encampment conjures up images of the Arabian nights. Quench your thirst while you relax on comfortable low cushions in Bedu tents. Have your hands painted with intricate henna designs, dress in local customary clothing for a once in a lifetime souvenir, see your name written in a bottle of colored sand, taste the exquisite flavors of camel chocolate, experience a short camel ride, or just enjoy the aromatic shisha. A feast of grilled meats, fresh salads, delectable Arab sweets and selected beverages are served. Under a galaxy of stars, you will be entertained by the bewitching belly dancer swaying in the strains of Arabian music. You won't want this enchanting evening to end.

After your camel ride, you will try for one of the world's newest and most exciting sports - sandboarding. Just strap on your sand boards, draw a deep breath and take an exhilarating rush down the steep-sided dunes to the floor of the valley below. Return to the city at around noon.

East Coast Tour*

Drive by the mosque-shaped Sharjah International Airport, designed by His Highness Sheikh Dr Sultan bin Mohammed Al Qassimi, the ruler of Sharjah. Continue through a multi-hued desert landscape to the oasis of Dhaid, before journeying through spectacular mountain scenery.

Just before Masafi, you can shop at the local crafts, pottery and carpet market. In the mountains, we stop for a stunning view of the canyon and the wadis showing tracks used by nomads in early days. We then drive to Dibba, a picturesque fishing village.

After lunch, we continue to the Bidiyah Mosque, the oldest and smallest in the United Arab Emirates, before following the coast to the lovely green town of Khor Fakkan. We visit a 300-year-old fort before proceeding to the village of Fujairah, abandoned when mountain dwellers moved away from oil exploration to start a fishing village. Our last stop before the return journey is Bithnah oasis. Here you may photograph (from a distance) the impressive fort still guarding the mountain pass, once the only access to Fujairah.

4.2 By Us

Changes or cancellation

- 4.2.1 It is unlikely that we will need to make any alteration to your travel arrangements but sometimes circumstances change and alterations have to be made. We reserve the right to change your booking at any time.
- 4.2.2 If we make a major change we will advise the lead person on the booking or your Travel Agent as soon as reasonably possible. A major change is one that we make to your booking before your departure that affects an essential term of your contract. Examples of a major change include (but are not limited to) changes by us to:
- (a) a change of accommodation to that of a lower official classification for the whole or a major part of your Dubai Stopover, or

(b) a change to the overall length of your Dubai Stopover of twelve or more hours.

4.2.3 If we make a major change we will offer you the choice of the following options:

- (a) accepting the changed arrangements; or
- (b) accepting substitute arrangements of comparable standard from us if available (we will refund any price difference if the alternative is of a lower value); or
- (c) cancelling your booking and receiving a full refund of all monies paid to us for the booking.

4.2.4 You must tell us which one of the above choices you wish to make within 72 hours of being informed of the major change we are making. If we do not receive notification from you about your choice within 72 hours you are deemed to have accepted the option specified in 4.2.3(a).

4.2.5 We shall not be liable for any changes to or cancellation of your Dubai Stopover due to events beyond our control. Examples of events beyond our control include, but are not limited to war or threat of war, riot or civil disturbance, political unrest, terrorist activity or threatened terrorist activity, industrial disputes or threatened industrial disputes, strikes, fire, floods and other natural disasters, nuclear disasters, adverse weather conditions, acts of God, acts of government, closure of airports, failure of a carrier, a hotelier or other person to operate services for any reason.

5. Our Liability To You

5.1 Our obligation is to take reasonable skill and care in the performance of our contractual obligations, subject to and in accordance with these Booking Conditions.

5.2 The Company is not itself a provider of accommodation, ground services, tours or other activities nor does it control the third parties who provide such services in connection with your Dubai Stopover.

5.3 We do not accept liability for any injury, illness, death, loss, damage, expense, cost or other claim of any description whatsoever which results from (i) the act(s) and/or omission(s) of the person(s) affected or any member(s) of their party; or (ii) the act(s) and/or omission(s) of a third party not connected with the provision of your arrangements and which were unforeseeable or unavoidable; or (iii) events beyond our control (as defined in clause 4.2.5).

5.4 Except in the cases of death or injury, our liability is limited to a maximum of the booking price attributable to the person affected. This maximum applies where you prove that no benefit or enjoyment has been obtained. In all other circumstances, we agree to pay compensation that is reasonable and proportionate for the reduction in value of your booking and any loss of enjoyment you prove subject to the above maximum.

5.5 Where properties are not featured in our brochures or other literature or on our website, we will not be liable for any claims that such properties booked at your express request do not satisfy your expectations.

5.6 Your booking may be serviced by carriers, providers of accommodation, car rental companies, catering and other parties who have their own booking conditions of carriage and business and over whom we may have no direct control. Their booking conditions may strictly limit the circumstances in which compensation is payable to you by them and you agree to be bound by their booking conditions. Such booking conditions are available from us upon request.

5.7 Air travel is subject to various International Conventions that limit the liability of the carriers. International Conventions which may apply include, without limitation, the Warsaw Convention 1929 (as amended) or the Montreal Convention 1999. The carriage by air of passengers and their baggage is in addition subject to the Conditions of Carriage of the carrier concerned. With respect to Emirates flights, please refer to the Conditions of Carriage for Passengers and Baggage, available on www.emirates.com

5.8 Save as set out above, and as is detailed elsewhere in these Booking Conditions, we shall have no legal liability whatsoever to you for any loss or damage.

6. Your Responsibilities

6.1 You must ensure that you and all members of your party have valid passports, visas, certificates of vaccination and any other documents required to enter any country you are visiting, including transit stops, prior to your departure. We cannot accept responsibility for any failure to comply resulting in any costs or fines being incurred and we advise you to check with the appropriate passport office(s) or consulate(s) in question if you have any queries.

6.2 For your own protection, we strongly recommend that you and all members of your party have comprehensive travel and medical insurance for the full period of your Dubai Stopover. It is your responsibility to ensure that the insurance cover you purchase is suitable and adequate for your particular needs.

6.3 If, in our reasonable opinion or the reasonable opinion of the provider of any part of the services to which your booking relates, your behaviour or the behaviour of any member of your party is disruptive, threatening or abusive, causes unnecessary inconvenience or is causing or likely to cause danger, damage, distress or upset, disturbance or annoyance to others or others' property, we may terminate your travel arrangements without any liability on our part. No refunds will be made and we will not pay any expenses or costs incurred as a result of the termination.

6.4 It is your responsibility to ensure that you are fit to travel and participate in all parts of the services you have booked and undertaken.

Valid between 1st November 2013 and 31st October 2014

(Some participating hotels have extended rates beyond October 2013 through to April 2014)

Dubai

Where old meets new

Comprising of seven emirates – Dubai, Abu Dhabi, Fujairah, Ras Al Khaimah, Ajman, Umm Al Quwain and Sharjah, the UAE is one of the world's fastest growing tourist destinations, a meeting place for diverse cultures with all the right ingredients for an unforgettable holiday experience.

With some of the finest hotels in the world, miles of golden sandy beaches and warm seas, state-of-the-art shopping malls, exotic souks, exquisite dining options, stunning desert and mountain landscapes, the UAE is a truly unique destination to explore.

The centre of our world

Dubai has been described in many ways - the gateway to the Middle East, the City of Merchants and the City of Gold - to name a few.

Dubai is a city of contrasts, a land where tradition meets diversity, historic and modern, from east to west, that blend seamlessly to create a fascinating destination. It is home to some of the world's finest hotels and culinary flare. An abundance of attractions, festivals and activities by day, and traditional celebrations to trendy discotheques by night are enough to keep any visitor with plenty to experience.

The numerous shopping malls feature international brands at competitive prices attracting the most enthusiastic shopper at heart. From lazing on pristine beaches to the thrill of hunting down bargains in the souks. Golf enthusiasts can tee-off on one of our championship courses while adventure seekers can try their hand at dune driving, sand boarding, scuba diving, fishing or indoor skiing. Whether you stay a few hours or a few days, experience the vibrancy of the world's fastest growing commercial and tourist centre, home to the world's tallest tower - Burj Khalifa, the world's largest mall - The Dubai Mall, the marvellous Palm Islands, the iconic Palm Jumeirah, all in an architects playground which continues to raise the bar with ground-breaking developments - Dubai is truly the metropolis of tomorrow.

General Information

Dress code

The United Arab Emirates is an Islamic country and clothing should be modest. In the hot and humid summer months light cotton garments are ideal. During the winter months, when the seasonal average is a pleasant 24°C, light sweaters are recommended. Beachwear is acceptable at beach clubs, hotels and public beaches. During the day, the dress code is fairly casual, although more exclusive restaurants and clubs may expect guests to dress more formally during the evening.

Language

Arabic is the national language of the United Arab Emirates but English is widely spoken and understood. The majority of information signs are in both languages.

Currency and exchange

The monetary unit of the United Arab Emirates is the Dirham (AED), divided into 100 fils. Exchange rate: US$1 = AED 3.67.

Food and drinks

Most hotels offer local specialities, as well as an eclectic mix of cuisine. Even though the UAE is a Muslim country, alcohol is served at many licensed hotel restaurants, bars and nightclubs. Restaurants outside hotels do not serve alcohol.

Tap water is safe to use, although bottled water is recommended for personal consumption.

Public holidays - fixed

National Day (2nd December) and New Year's Day (1st January).

Public holidays - movable

Islamic New Year, Prophet Mohammed's Birthday, Accession Day, Eid Al-Fitr, Eid Al-Adha.

The Holy Month of Ramadan

The Holy Month of Ramadan is expected to begin the first week of July, 2014 and continue for a maximum of 30 days.

The Holy Month of Ramadan is when Muslims fast from sunrise to sunset. Eating, drinking and smoking in public areas during daylight hours is strictly prohibited with exceptions permitted only for small children and expecting mothers. No food or beverages will be served in any open restaurants during daylight hours.

All Dubai Stopovers featured hotels make concessions for their guests with at least one restaurant open during the day for resident guests. Alcohol will however not be served in restaurants during this time but is served in restaurants and bars only after sunset for non-Muslims. In each hotel, only one bar is permitted to serve alcohol to guests from 2000 hours to 0200 hours. Live entertainment, loud music and dancing are also prohibited during this period.

Many hotels celebrate 'breaking the fast' after sunset and offer Iftar, a great experience while visiting Dubai during Ramadan.

A large Emirates Airbus A380 aircraft is shown in flight against a backdrop of a blue sky with scattered white clouds. The aircraft's tail features the distinctive Emirates logo with green, white, black, and red stripes. The word 'Emirates' is written in gold on the side of the fuselage, along with the Arabic name 'الإمارات'.

Dubai City Tour*

A fascinating historical excursion; our route takes us from Burj Al Arab, Dubai's landmark hotel to Majlis Al Ghorfat, a magnificent structure constructed in 1955 and recently restored. The Majlis was originally the summer residence of the late Sheikh Rashid bin Saeed Al-Maktoum.

Driving past modern palaces, we stop at the Jumeirah Mosque for a photo opportunity. Our route then takes us to Al Fahidi Cultural district to admire the old-wind-towered houses which were built by wealthy merchants, passing the magnificent Zabeel Palace on the way. Further on, we visit the Al Fahidi Fort, a 200-year-old structure that houses the Dubai Museum and records the city's past as an important pearl diving and trading centre.

We continue our journey on a traditional abra, across the Creek, offering sights of a modern metropolis, with splendid architecture on its banks, dwarfing the bustling alleys of the gold and spice souks.

*Lunch not included in the tour price.

Dune Dinner Safari

The mysterious desert beckons you for a magical evening out - an adventure you'll never forget. Leaving behind the bustle of the city in the afternoon, our safari guides will transport you, by four-wheel drive vehicles, for a thrilling journey over rolling dunes through the Dubai Desert Conservation Reserve, deep into the heart of the desert.

From the crest of a high dune, watch the setting sun cast its orange glow over the vast expanse of rippling sand all round you. Like a shimmering mirage in the distance you will see the flickering lights of your camp where a traditional Arabian welcome awaits you.

The encampment conjures up images of the Arabian nights. Quench your thirst while you relax on comfortable low cushions in Bedu tents. Have your hands painted with intricate henna designs, dress in local customary clothing for a once in a lifetime souvenir, see your name written in a bottle of colored sand, taste the exquisite flavors of camel chocolate, experience a short camel ride, or just enjoy the aromatic shisha. A feast of grilled meats, fresh salads, delectable Arab sweets and selected beverages are served. Leaving Dubai in the morning, your four-wheel drive vehicle takes you far into the Dubai Desert Conservation Reserve, where you meet your camel caravan for a half-hour ride across the spectacular red dunes. After your camel ride, you will try for one of the world's newest and most exciting sports - sandboarding. East Coast Tour*

Drive by the mosque-shaped Sharjah International Airport, designed by His Highness Sheikh Dr Sultan bin Mohammed Al Qassimi, the ruler of Sharjah. Continue through a multi-hued desert landscape to the oasis of Dhaid, before journeying through spectacular mountain scenery.

Just before Masafi, you can shop at the local crafts, pottery and carpet market. In the mountains, we stop for a stunning view of the canyon and the wadis showing tracks used by nomads in early days. We then drive to Dibba, a picturesque fishing village.

After lunch, we continue to the Bidiyah Mosque, the oldest and smallest in the United Arab Emirates, before following the coast to the lovely green town of Khor Fakkan. We visit a 300-year-old fort before proceeding to the village of Fujairah, abandoned when mountain dwellers moved away from oil exploration to start a fishing village. Our last stop before the return journey is Bithnah oasis. Here you may photograph (from a distance) the impressive fort still guarding the mountain pass, once the only access to Fujairah.

A capital Adventure

Desert and mountain safari

This off-road adventure takes in some of the roughest, most dramatic and varied terrain in the country. Leave Dubai on a journey through traditional villages over tumbling dunes.

We follow the trails of the wadis and stop for an alfresco picnic lunch in one of the wadis. After lunch, we drive on to the Hatta Heritage Village to visit the restored fort converted to a museum which provides historical insight of the area.

A tale of two cities

Cultural Walking Tour through Sharjah and Ajman*

This fascinating tour of two of the country's Northern Emirates begins at an ancient fort that today houses Ajman Museum. This quaint 18th century fort originally served as the Ruler's palace and office until 1970, when it became the main police station. After browsing through an interesting collection of archaeological artifacts, manuscripts, old weapons and reconstructions of traditional life, we stop for a photo opportunity at Al Magfirah Mosque, the largest mosque in Sharjah, built to honor King Faisal of Saudi Arabia.

We continue on foot through Sharjah's fish and vegetable markets before we proceed to the famed Blue Souk, where more than 600 shops sell carpets, gold, silver, antiques, perfumes, garments and much more. Our next stop takes us to Al Arsah Souk, one of the country's few remaining traditional marketplaces. Browse through the old souk area, part of Sharjah's original settlement, offering a variety of spices, nuts, dates, household goods and shisha and walk along the creek past dhows laden with goods from Iran to the bustling Iranian market.

We stop at Qanat Al Qasba for lunch before our party takes a scenic drive along Sharjah's Corniche Road. We stop for a quick photo opportunity at the Al Noor Mosque. Our last stop on this insightful cultural adventure is the majestic Sharjah Museum of Islamic Civilization, which houses more than 5,000 exquisite Islamic artifacts from all over the Islamic World.

4.2 By Us

Changes or cancellation

- 4.2.1 It is unlikely that we will need to make any alteration to your travel arrangements but sometimes circumstances change and alterations have to be made. We reserve the right to change your booking at any time.
- 4.2.2 If we make a major change we will advise the lead person on the booking or your Travel Agent as soon as reasonably possible. A major change is one that we make to your booking before your departure that affects an essential term of your contract. Examples of a major change include (but are not limited to) changes by us to:
- (a) a change of accommodation to that of a lower official classification for the whole or a major part of your Dubai Stopover, or

(b) a change to the overall length of your Dubai Stopover of twelve or more hours.

4.2.3 If we make a major change we will offer you the choice of the following options:

- (a) accepting the changed arrangements; or
- (b) accepting substitute arrangements of comparable standard from us if available (we will refund any price difference if the alternative is of a lower value); or
- (c) cancelling your booking and receiving a full refund of all monies paid to us for the booking.

4.2.4 You must tell us which one of the above choices you wish to make within 72 hours of being informed of the major change we are making. If we do not receive notification from you about your choice within 72 hours you are deemed to have accepted the option specified in 4.2.3(a).

4.2.5 We shall not be liable for any changes to or cancellation of your Dubai Stopover due to events beyond our control. Examples of events beyond our control include, but are not limited to war or threat of war, riot or civil disturbance, political unrest, terrorist activity or threatened terrorist activity, industrial disputes or threatened industrial disputes, strikes, fire, floods and other natural disasters, nuclear disasters, adverse weather conditions, acts of God, acts of government, closure of airports, failure of a carrier, a hotelier or other person to operate services for any reason.

5. Our Liability To You

5.1 Our obligation is to take reasonable skill and care in the performance of our contractual obligations, subject to and in accordance with these Booking Conditions.

5.2 The Company is not itself a provider of accommodation, ground services, tours or other activities nor does it control the third parties who provide such services in connection with your Dubai Stopover.

5.3 We do not accept liability for any injury, illness, death, loss, damage, expense, cost or other claim of any description whatsoever which results from (i) the act(s) and/or omission(s) of the person(s) affected or any member(s) of their party; or (ii) the act(s) and/or omission(s) of a third party not connected with the provision of your arrangements and which were unforeseeable or unavoidable; or (iii) events beyond our control (as defined in clause 4.2.5).

5.4 Except in the cases of death or injury, our liability is limited to a maximum of the booking price attributable to the person affected. This maximum applies where you prove that no benefit or enjoyment has been obtained. In all other circumstances, we agree to pay compensation that is reasonable and proportionate for the reduction in value of your booking and any loss of enjoyment you prove subject to the above maximum.

5.5 Where properties are not featured in our brochures or other literature or on our website, we will not be liable for any claims that such properties booked at your express request do not satisfy your expectations.

5.6 Your booking may be serviced by carriers, providers of accommodation, car rental companies, catering and other parties who have their own booking conditions of carriage and business and over whom we may have no direct control. Their booking conditions may strictly limit the circumstances in which compensation is payable to you by them and you agree to be bound by their booking conditions. Such booking conditions are available from us upon request.

5.7 Air travel is subject to various International Conventions that limit the liability of the carriers. International Conventions which may apply include, without limitation, the Warsaw Convention 1929 (as amended) or the Montreal Convention 1999. The carriage by air of passengers and their baggage is in addition subject to the Conditions of Carriage of the carrier concerned. With respect to Emirates flights, please refer to the Conditions of Carriage for Passengers and Baggage, available on www.emirates.com

5.8 Save as set out above, and as is detailed elsewhere in these Booking Conditions, we shall have no legal liability whatsoever to you for any loss or damage.

6. Your Responsibilities

6.1 You must ensure that you and all members of your party have valid passports, visas, certificates of vaccination and any other documents required to enter any country you are visiting, including transit stops, prior to your departure. We cannot accept responsibility for any failure to comply resulting in any costs or fines being incurred and we advise you to check with the appropriate passport office(s) or consulate(s) in question if you have any queries.

6.2 For your own protection, we strongly recommend that you and all members of your party have comprehensive travel and medical insurance for the full period of your Dubai Stopover. It is your responsibility to ensure that the insurance cover you purchase is suitable and adequate for your particular needs.

6.3 If, in our reasonable opinion or the reasonable opinion of the provider of any part of the services to which your booking relates, your behaviour or the behaviour of any member of your party is disruptive, threatening or abusive, causes unnecessary inconvenience or is causing or likely to cause danger, damage, distress or upset, disturbance or annoyance to others or others' property, we may terminate your travel arrangements without any liability on our part. No refunds will be made and we will not pay any expenses or costs incurred as a result of the termination.

6.4 It is your responsibility to ensure that you are fit to travel and participate in all parts of the services you have booked and undertaken.

Please provide as much information as possible, including your Dubai Stopovers booking reference and dates where applicable.

All information is correct at the time of going to print. However, hotels and services offered are subject to change without prior notice.

Valid between 1st November 2013 and 31st October 2014

(Some participating hotels have extended rates beyond October 2013 through to April 2014)

Hotels offering the facility of 24-hour check-in/check-out will apply this policy to all bookings and will not offer the option for passengers to book rooms based on standard check-in/check-out times. A night booked at hotels offering the facility of 24-hour check-in/check-out entitles the passenger(s) to stay for a period of 24-hours from their time of arrival at the airport. All check-out times will be in multiples of 24-hours thereof. For example, a guest who arrives at Dubai International Airport at 5am on a certain day must check-out from the hotel by 5am on the day he/she plans to leave, otherwise an extra day will be charged, even if the stay is extended by a few hours.
